

Account Tip: Add an Interested Party

For Account Owners who want other members of their support system to have access to their Account, adding an Interested Party is a great solution. A person listed as an Interested Party is given access to information about the Account and receives duplicate statements.

To name an Interested Party, contact us to work with one of our saving specialists or complete and mail the Account Information Change Form. If using the form, make sure to complete all required sections, check Add/Update Interested Party in step 2 and complete step 10.
