

In Case You Missed It

Congress recently passed the ABLE Age Adjustment Act, which will raise the ABLE age limit of onset of a disability from 26 to 46 starting in 2026. It is estimated six million more Americans, including one million veterans, will be eligible for an ABLE account because of this change.

